

Global Warming Poster

You have learnt about some of the ways you can help to stop global warming. Now make a poster to help others to make a change and become greener. You might even want to put them up around your school or at home.