

The Nile Crocodile

Information Layered Flip Book

visit twinkl.co.za

Glue cover here

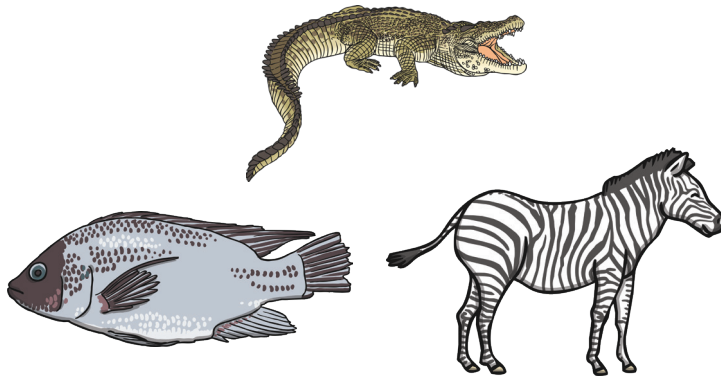

Habitat

They live throughout Southern Africa, in the Nile Basin and in Madagascar.

They are found in rivers, freshwater marshes, and mangrove swamps.

Glue page 1 here

Diet

Nile crocodiles eat mainly fish, but it will attack almost anything, including zebras, small hippos, porcupines, birds, and other crocodiles.

Glue page 2 here

Reproduction

Female Nile Crocodiles will dig a hole in a sandy riverbank and lay up to twelve eggs. The female and the male guard the nest during the incubation period, which lasts for about two to three months.

After the eggs hatch they stay close to their mothers for a few years so that she can protect them.