

Ronald the Rhino

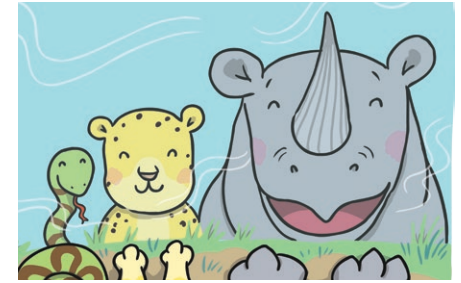

Fact Cards

Ronald the Rhino Fact Cards

Did You Know?

Scientists think that there are fewer than 60 Javan rhinos now living in the wild.

Javan animals are thought to be the most endangered mammal on earth. This means that if we do not look after them, the species will die out altogether.

twinkl.com

Ronald the Rhino Fact Cards

Did You Know?

Javan rhinos like to live in the lowlands of the rainforests. They like areas of tall grass, wide floodplains, rivers and wet areas which are scattered with muddy pools.

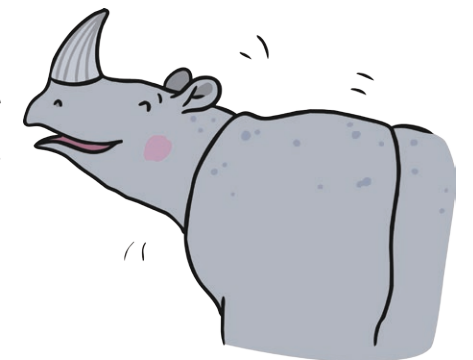

twinkl.com

Ronald the Rhino Fact Cards

Did You Know?

Javan rhinos have one horn that they use to scratch away mud, pull down plants for eating and create paths through the forest.

They have grey-brown folds of skin, which look like armour plating. They have no hair.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Javan rhinos do not eat meat. They are herbivores. This means that they eat lots of plants, shoots, twigs and fallen fruit.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Javan rhinos now only live in the Ujung Kulon National Park. This is on the island of Java in Indonesia.

twinkl.com

Did You Know?

Around 30 million different types of animal and plant species can be found in rainforests.

Some other creatures that can be found in Indonesia are the Javan banded pitta, the Javan langur, the Sumatran tiger, the Indonesian elephant, the leopard and the python.

twinkl.com