

Apostrophes for Possession

Warm-Up

twinkl

Look at how the apostrophe is used to show that something belongs to someone.

Nadia

This is Nadia's radio.

Rachel

This is Rachel's car.

Clara

This is Clara's train.

Owen

This is Owen's dog.

Kaylee

This is Kaylee's book.

Malik

This is Malik's rocket.

These children are talking about birthdays. Can you explain why they have used an apostrophe?

Can you write what you would say in this conversation, using an apostrophe to show possession?

Can you rewrite each sentence so that it includes an apostrophe to show possession? The first one has been done for you. Click the sentence to see if you were right.

Charlie is looking at the hoop that belongs to Isla.

Charlie is looking at Isla's hoop.

I ate a big slice of the cake that belongs to Tim.

These are the parents that belong to Aleena.

Chloe got paint in the hair that belongs to Luna.

After playing all day, I had to lie down on the sofa that belongs to Derek.

I washed the car that belongs to my uncle.

Serena broke the necklace that belonged to her mum.

This family are very possessive of their food! Can you write labels for all the food in their fridge using apostrophes to show possession? One has been done for you.

Misty

Grandpa
John

Colin

Kaya

Alfie

Karen

Can you write some labels for food in your fridge using apostrophes to show who they belong to in your family?

