

Check out these RAINFORESTS weblinks

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JEsV5rqbVNQ> THIS IS A GREAT PLACE TO START! Take a virtual trip to the rainforests of the world. Where in the world are the rainforests? Remember the Equator? Let's look closely at the top 2 layers of the rainforest. Listen for the sounds!

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p01z03gr>—Hey Monkey Boogie Beebies. If you fancy a bit of a bop to the topic....follow this link and learn the moves to Hey Monkey! If you fancy you're too advanced as a dancer for this....up-level it like we do with writing and make it a more tricky dance!!

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zb2jmp3> - a great short video clip about how green the rainforest is. Introducing camouflage—we might think a little more about this later on too!!

<https://www.rainforest-alliance.org/coloring-pages/rainforest>—see the PDF file provided—it is the picture for colour or paint. If you would like to read about the animals in your picture, you can follow this link and click on the red buttons to work interactively through your picture.

Download and color this rainforest scene, and get to know some of the plants and animals within it by tapping or clicking them on the image below.

Remember to keep moving!! Can you swing your arms like an orangutan, flutter like a butterfly, balance like an iguana, pounce like a tiger, stretch your arms/wings like a scarlet macaw, pretend you're climbing one of those really tall trees?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LIBz0IdOFiQ>—join in with a lovely adventure into the rainforest where you can learn about solving boredom! No more "I'm bored!!!" Stezzi the Parrot shows us how a little boredom can lead us to great ideas if we just breathe!

<https://www.dkfindout.com/uk/animals-and-nature/habitats-and-ecosystems/rainforest-layers/> - a useful website that shows a simple picture of the different layers of the rainforest and allows you to learn about the wildlife that lives there by clicking interactively.
