

Spotlight Assembly 19th December 2014

Word of the Week – grateful

|              |                                                                                                                               |
|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Green Apples | Finlay WG and Lucy B – for having a super first term at school and setting a shining example.                                 |
| Red apples   | Maisie L and Cohen M – for having a super first term in school and growing in confidence.                                     |
| IVL          | Zac B and Isabel RM – for working really hard and making progress in school.                                                  |
| ILP          | Evie D – for giving 100% all the time.McKenzie B – for making a big improvement.                                          |
| 2RR          | Taylor R and Roxy P – for being kind and hard working.                                                                        |
| 2RP          | George D'B and Jersey H – for trying hard all of the time and being very polite.                                              |
| 3EN          | Jessica C – for making Miss Newcombe smile all the time.Maddox R – for being a lovely member of the class.                |
| 3AL/JB       | Jasmine H and Isaac S – for working so hard and having excellent listening skills.                                            |
| 4SM          | Sienna C and Daniel Fos – having a super Autumn Term in Y4.                                                                   |
| 4AF          | Harriet A and Cody H – having an excellent Autumn Term in Y4.                                                                 |
| 5EB          | Connor O'D and Katie H – for setting super examples.                                                                          |
| 5TH          | Hope W – for always doing everything right!Noah F – for being 100% awesome!                                               |
| 6LF          | Daniel H – for being an all round superstarFaye D – for coping very well with her broken arm and just getting on with it! |
| 6JG          | Alicia A and Daniel B – for having great attitudes, manners and for working so hard all term.                                 |

Other Mentions

Recorder group – for being super at learning the Christmas songs for the Carol Service.

Chris – for having a super term and always having a smile!

Readers in the Carol Service

Choir – for all of their hard work in various Christmas services this year.