

Spotlight Assembly 19th June 2015

Word of the Week – resilient

Green Apples	Emily H – for her fantastic independent writing.
Red apples	Riley K – for always having a smile on his face and never giving up.
IVL	MacKenzie H – for writing a great poem about the seaside.
ILP	Holly W – for never giving up and always trying hard.
2RR	Ryley P – for being resilient in maths.
2RP	Macie W – for being brilliant in science work.
3EN	Joseph F – for being resilient in maths using the bus shelter method for division.
3AL/JB	Kaitlin-Rose N – for super homework.
4SM	Henry C – for beautiful artwork and amazing weaving skills. McKenzie M – for being super at Sherwood.
4AF	Thomas A – for being so resilient when making woodland shelters at Sherwood Forest. Eleanor R – for excellent art and craft work and attitude during our Sherwood week.
5EB	Chloe D – for hard work and determination.
5TH	Chloe-Ann R – for being resilient.
6LF	Georgia D – for excellent debating skills and for being resilient in maths.
6JG	Billy C – for being resilient and constantly keeping trying.

Other Mentions

Year 4 – for having a great week at Sherwood Forest and carrying out Robin Hood activities. Especially, Max, Bradley, Cody, Harriet, Ruben, Yasmin and Euan for their superb manners.

Thankyou to Miss Bramley's class, Literacy and Numeracy group for working hard with Mrs Hunter

Mrs Hunter was so impressed with Mrs Lee's Numeracy group working on fractions.

Y3 children who acted in show and tell

Willis and Harry – for working together nicely in maths and finding lots of solutions.

Charlie and Ryan – for pleasing Mrs Revill from looking after crayons and keeping the classroom tidy.