

Spotlight Assembly-22nd December 2017

Word of the Week – Belonging

Oranges SW	Archie Eskriett – Always doing the right thing an trying their best. Violet Dorans – Always trying to do their best and doing the right thing.
Year ISP	Charlie Salmon – For great effort and gaining more confidence this term. Alicja Swierczynska – For a positive attitude towards her learning this term.
Year 2EN	Gibson McEntee-Marsh – For being a great role model to others. Ashlee Lowe – For being a fantastic learner.
Year 3CH	Lily Merrin – For a great improvement over the term. Finley Davenport – For working very hard achieving excellent results this term
Year 4KJ	Olivia Stefaniak – For great effort with her work this term. Jake Richards – For great effort with his work this term.
Year 5AW	Tia Howe – For working hard and always giving her best. Jake Warrener – Always working hard and being a role model to others.
Year 6EB	Caitlin Cowell – Having a brill first term in Y6, always giving 100%. Joseph Monk – Having a bril firsy term in Y6, always giving 100%.

Other Mentions

The readers and singers who did so well in the carol concert on Tuesday.

Isabell Marshall – For her brilliant performance in the talent show.

Colby Richards – For fantastic independent writing.

Emmanuel Muoka, Szymon Gajewski, Hollie Walker, Luke Ley, Honey Rawding, Bethany Carpenter, Mia Brailsford, Caitlin Cowell – Achieving their play leader awards

Ola Smith and Finley Hazledine – Achieving their swimming certificates.

Winning house for this term was Pearlthorpe.

Spotlight Assembly-22nd December 2017
