

An Extract From Teddy's Trip on a Train

12 As we got onto the train, I noticed that lots of boys
21 and girls were wearing tags around their necks with
31 their names on. I liked knowing their names – it made
41 the train full of strangers seem less scary. William was 51 sitting with his sister. He was squeezing her tiny hand
56 tightly, keeping a firm grasp.

67 We chose a sunny table seat by the window. Not long
77 after sitting down, Nancy put her hand in the pocket
89 of her dress and pulled out two odd things: a piece of
100 string and a scrap of cardboard. With a pen, she started
103 to write something...

Quick Questions

1. What two things did Nancy get out of her pocket?

a. _____

b. _____

2. Find and copy a phrase which tells the reader what the weather was like on that day.

3. Why do you think that the children were wearing name tags?

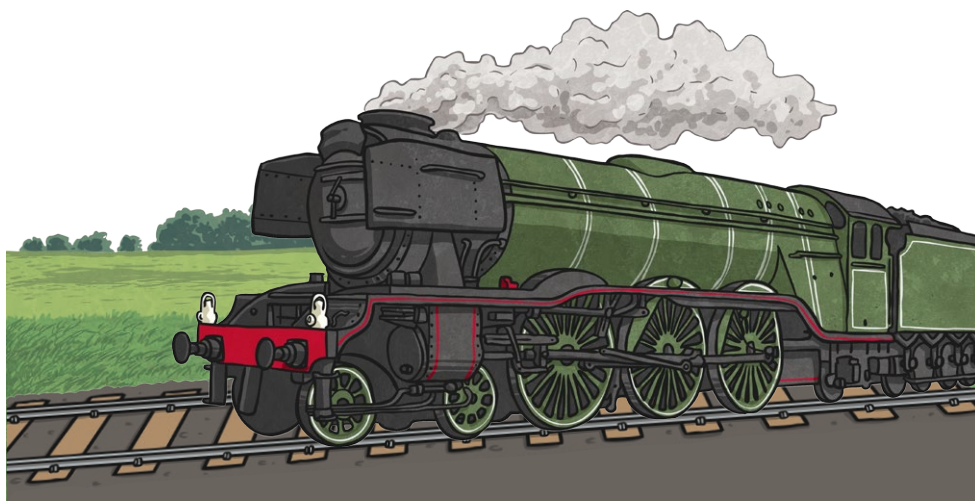

4. What do you think that Nancy was writing?

An Extract From Teddy's Trip on a Train

12 As we got onto the train, I noticed that lots of boys
21 and girls were wearing tags around their necks with
31 their names on. I liked knowing their names – it made
41 the train full of strangers seem less scary. William was
51 sitting with his sister. He was squeezing her tiny hand
56 tightly, keeping a firm grasp.

67 We chose a sunny table seat by the window. Not long
77 after sitting down, Nancy put her hand in the pocket
89 of her dress and pulled out two odd things: a piece of
100 string and a scrap of cardboard. With a pen, she started
103 to write something...

Answers

1. What two things did Nancy get out of her pocket?

Accept: string and cardboard.

2. Find and copy a phrase which tells the reader what the weather was like on that day.

Accept 'we chose a sunny table'.

3. Why do you think that the children were wearing name tags?

Accept any answer which relates to evacuation or knowing their identity because there were no parents present.

4. What do you think that Nancy was writing?

Accept answers which infer that Nancy was making herself or the teddy a nametag.